Data

Creating a plan for improvement can seem impossible without the right tools. After working to determine the right strategies and activities, you may find yourself buried under spreadsheets and progress reports.

We can help you develop your plan, implement a cloud-based strategy tracking platform, and reach your goals through performance improvement best practices.

Create and Implement Plans

Whatever plan you are building, Conduent HCI can help – from identifying goals to tracking outcomes. Our solution sets you up for success with expert support for developing your plan, an easy-to-use interface and simple analytic tools for measuring your progress.

Collaborate Across Organizations

We understand that in today's world, working across organizations or departments is a must. But it's not always easy. At Conduent HCI, we support you whether your partnerships are just forming, or you've been working together for years. Our solutions can help everyone stay informed, engaged and meet shared goals.

Share and Communicate Outcomes, Performance and Data

The Conduent HCI Strategy Tracking Solution makes it simple to deliver timely and accurate information to elected officials, executive leadership, community members, staff and partners.
